RESIGNATIONS ACCEPTED BY COUNTY BOARD

Two resignations were accepted and one position filled at the March meeting of the Adams County Board of School Directors Monday evening at the office of the county superintendent of schools. President William M. Lott presided.

After accepting the resignation of Mrs. Miriam S. Keyser as teacher of a special education class at the Eisenhower School here, the board elected Miss Rebecca J. Gifford, Camp Hill, to the position. Mrs. Keyser will complete the current school year.

Miss Gifford is a senior at Pennsylvania State University and will be qualified to teach either special or regular classes. She will be paid $4,600 per year.

The other resignation was that of Mrs. Jean W. Sixeas as receptionist and typist in the county superintendent's office. It will be effective on Friday of this week. The position may be filled Wednesday by the county commissioners.

Action by the county board gave the county superintendent's office authority to employ additional special education personnel before the April meeting of the board.

Plans were discussed for handling a survey of directors' opinions on Act 561, the school reorganization bill, which has been requested by the state School Directors' Association. The proposal is that directors will be asked their opinions on repeal, amendment or retention of the

Algiers Is Gripped By Strike In Protest Of Death Of 41 Europeans

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
ALGIERS (AP)—A protest strike gripped Algiers today, called by European settlers in mourning for the 41 Europeans killed when French troops fired into a crowd demonstrating in support of the Secret Army Organization.

Public transportation was at a standstill. Most European stores were closed. No newspapers appeared. Banks failed to open. The big outdoor market was silent and deserted. There were reports that electricity would be cut.

Hundreds of Europeans strolled the streets and most of them seemed to head for the street corner in front of the main post office where the shooting broke out Monday. In addition to the 41 settlers killed, about 130 were wounded. Army casualties were one killed and six wounded.

CLOTHES UNTOUCHED
Some strollers placed modest bouquets of flowers on the bloodstains in the streets. Debris still littered the sidewalks. Lost shoes and berets lay untouched. Passing automobiles had turned some blood pools into long streaks of red on the street pavement.

Workman Buried Under Fertilizer

John Hall, 40, Fayetteville R. 2, an employee of the Central Chemical Co., was reported as in a satisfactory condition today at the Warner Hospital where he was admitted Monday morning after being severely injured while at work.

Hall was digging loose some fertilizer in a hopper when the fertilizer suddenly released and buried him. Three fellow employees dug him out and Hall was rushed to the hospital in the fire company ambulance.

The workman suffered a fractured pelvis, fracture of the right ankle, fracture of the left leg, fractures to three bones in the back, sprain of the left elbow and contusions of the right shoulder.

6 MODEL HATS AT MEETING OF HOSPITAL UNIT

The program at the meeting of the Annie M. Warner Hospital Auxiliary held in the hospital dining room Monday afternoon was in the form of a hat fashion show.

Mrs. William G. Weaver introduced Mrs. Henry M. Scharf who served as narrator for the show.

Mrs. Scharf wore a white braid pillbox studded with gold patent, with matching veiling. Six models each showed five hats.

Mrs. M. K. Eckert modeled a flowered cloche of violets with a gently sloping brim and wide velvet ribbon encircling the crown. One of the most striking of the hats modeled by Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas was a deep crowned cloche of pink silk roses which the narrator described as "colorful and eye-catching." Mrs. Kenneth Dick wore many striking models, one of the most interesting being a lilac pillbox of silk petals with a bouffant and airy appearance.

"PICTURE HAT"

Mrs. Joseph Heiney modeled a picture hat of milan straw in vibrant orange, with a matched overlay of silk chiffon softly draped over the brim and around the crown, ending in a winged tip. The fashion world predicts that brimmed hats will be popular this season and this hat brought many admiring comments.

Mrs. John Foy modeled smaller hats, among the most attractive being a navy off-the-face cloche of bubble souffle braid, with the top edge of the crown fluted and sides tied to give a turban effect. Mrs. Fred G. Pfeiffer, modeling both suit and dress hats, wore a high crowned cloche with narrow brim. The navy and white checkerboard braid was accented with a wide draped band of navy chiffon with a jeweled pin. This was described as an "excellent suit hat."

At the close of the show Mrs. Merville E. Zinn, proprietor of the Carol Ann Shoppe, which presented the show, was introduced. She announced that the hats will be on display at her store until Saturday and would be sold to members at a discount to be contributed to the Auxiliary.

HAVE 877 MEMBERS

Mrs. David C. Stoner, president, presided at the business meeting which preceded the show. Mrs. Walter B. Dillon, treasurer, reported that the financial books were in a state of flux, due to a change in the hospital's account.

SET HEARING
DATE ON APPLE
ORDER FOR PA.

Pennsylvania apple growers will have an opportunity to express their views on a marketing order at a hearing scheduled for May 9 and 10 in Harrisburg, according to an announcement made today by State Secretary of Agriculture William L. Henning.

"Working together through such means as marketing orders will help producers protect their position in the marketplace," Henning said. "Apple growers all around us in New York, New Jersey and Virginia have effective systems similar to that proposed in our state. The State Horticultural Association of Pennsylvania is to be commended for its action in submitting a proposed marketing order and a petition asking for a hearing."

Upon signing the act permitting the initiation of an order in September 1961, Governor David L. Lawrence described the measure as "a fresh outlook on the farm marketing problems of this state. The marketing act is the first basic, new agricultural marketing legislation to be enacted in more than 20 years."

ALLOWS ASSESSMENT

A hearing is required to show need for an order before the secretary can schedule a referendum. Two-thirds of the producers with half the apple volume would have to vote approval before an order would take effect.

The proposed marketing order allows for an assessment to be paid by the growers of apples. Money collected under the order would be used for advertising and promotion, research and information service programs administered by an industry advisory

3 Companies Get Grass Fire Calls

Gettysburg, Bendersville and Fairfield firemen were called to grass fires this morning.

Fairfield extinguished a blaze at the Lloyd Kump property at 8:45 this morning. Bendersville was called to a grass fire at the Justice White orchard, near Idaville, at 10:45 and Gettysburg was called at 11:45 o'clock to a grass fire at the Powell property, near White Run.

Gettysburg Fire Chief Francis Linn urged residents of the area to be exceedingly cautious in burning debris outdoors, noting the heavy incidence of grass fires the last several days and observing that the dead weeds and grass are "tinder dry" despite the dampness of the ground itself.

URGENT AIRPORT TO STIMULATE INDUSTRY HERE

Two speakers at the Kiwanis Club meeting Monday evening at the Lamp Post Tea Room urged the town to establish a "Class 2" airport as a means of securing new industry for the community.

George Lawver, Gettysburg, and Donald X. Sullivan, Orrtanna, an airplane inspector and former manager of an airplane repair station, said much of the flying done in America is done by industries to speed executives and salesmen from one section of the country to another. They said that all other things being even "industry would select a site near an airport in preference to one some distance from an airport."

Lawver, noting that private flying has not developed in Adams County to the extent it has in many other counties, told of the pleasures of flying and said of the 115,000 civil aircraft registered in the U. S. 40 per cent are in Region One which extends from Maine to Virginia. Lawver said Gettysburg's airport would be busy if it would be improved to Class 2 requirements. He presented

Elmo Smith Loses Appeal To Spare Life

HARRISBURG (AP)—Elmo Smith, 41-year-old convicted slayer of a Philadelphia schoolgirl, lost Monday in a last-ditch effort to escape death in the electric chair the week of April 2.

The State Pardons Board rejected Smith's appeal for clemency without comment.

The former resident of Bridgeport was convicted in 1960 for the December 1959 rape-murder of 16-year-old Maryann Mitchell on a lonely road in Whitmarsh Twp., Montgomery County.

He was convicted of the crime by an Adams County jury in Gettysburg. His attorney asked for the change of venue on grounds Smith would not receive an impartial trial in Montgomery County.

Earlier this year, Gov. Lawrence tentatively fixed the week of April 2 for Smith's execution at Rockview State Correctional Institution in Bellefonte.

EXPECT BRIEF
WARNING HERE ON A-ATTACKS

Adams Countians might have from a half-hour to a two-hour warning if nearby cities come under nuclear attack, County Civil Defense Director William G. Weaver told members of the Gettysburg Lions' Club Monday evening at their dinner meeting at the VFW home.

"We don't expect Gettysburg or Adams County will be a primary target for atomic attack but the danger would be from fallout if York or Pittsburgh or some other nearby target were hit," he said.

"That would give the schools time to get the youngsters home by bus or other means, provided they had a well worked out plan ready in advance," Mr. Weaver said.

INDIVIDUAL DECISION

He described the type of construction necessary for an adequate fallout shelter and said: "Maybe you don't think it's worth all that effort. Everyone has to decide for himself in his own heart and soul what to do about fallout shelters for his own family. He must decide where he wants to give them the most protection available."

Mr. Weaver said he had constructed a fallout shelter in the basement of his new home here and then was shown in a demonstration at Harrisburg that such a shelter offers very little protection. "It takes three inches of lead, 24 inches of concrete or three feet of earth to stop those gamma rays. It's the first heavy fallout that causes the greatest amount of trouble," he said.

Said there is no talk of bomb shelters here but shelters to give protection from fallout and he distributed booklets issued by the Department of Defense on protection from fallout.

He referred to the survey recently conducted here on availability and suitability of public buildings for use as public fallout shelters and said no report has yet been received on the result of the survey. The next step, he said, will be for the federal government to mark and stock public shelters. He said a cubic foot of storage space will be required for supplies for each

FRONDIZI IS CLINGING TO Office; Ouster Nearing

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
BUENOS AIRES (AP)—A military coup to topple President Arturo Frondizi appeared to draw nearer today after he rejected a plea for his resignation from his own hand-picked mediator, ex-President Pedro Aramburu.

Frondizi's insistence on holding on to the office to which he was elected four years ago drew a proclamation of open rebellion from Gen. Franklin Rawson, commander of the 3rd Cavalry Division based 180 miles south of Buenos Aires.

Rawson accused the president of betraying Gen. Aramburu's mediation efforts and said the use of force remains the only path open to those opposing Frondizi. He called on all other military units to join him in rebellion.

NAVY MAY BOLT

There was no immediate evidence that Rawson's threat was being implemented by action on any front. The position of the air force and a large segment of the army was still not clear. The navy was all for ousting Frondizi. Extra security precautions were taken at Government House. A company of mounted grenadiers wearing battle fatigues arrived during the night.

Unconfirmed reports indicated all was normal at Tandil, Rawson's headquarters. However, the same reports spoke of unusual pre-dawn activity at the naval base and nearby military establishments at Bahia Blanca, 350 miles southwest of the capital.

"WILL NOT RESIGN"

Aramburu conferred after midnight with Frondizi in the president's private suburban residence, then told newsmen that Frondizi had declared "he is not resigning and will not resign."

Did You Mail
Some Money?

The post office department will be several dollars richer unless someone comes forth and proves ownership of a sum of money which was found in a mail box in Lincoln Square several days ago.

Postmaster Charles W. Pentz reported this morning that an employee found the cash in the mail box when he collected mail at that point.

The owner of the money may recover the cash if he or she can convince Postmaster Pentz. The claimant will have to tell what kind of cash was placed in the mail box, how many pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters, halves, dollar bills, twos, fives, tens, twenties, fifties or hundreds . . . if they comprise the mail box deposit.

The money found is in excess of one dollar but Pentz will not say how much. It could be a thousand. It could be one cent. Who knows?

CLUB TOLD OF SERVICE FROM COUNTY DAILY

"The Gettysburg Times strives to publish all the local news and as much of the state, national and international phases as is possible and to serve to the best of its ability the residents of its trading area in Pennsylvania and Maryland," G. Henry Roth, reporter for The Times told the Rotary Club at its meeting Monday evening in the YWCA. He spoke for Paul L. Roy, editor, who was unable to attend because of a conflict in engagements.

"The Times has grown as the community has grown," Roth said. "When the paper started back in 1902 it was a small four-page daily with Philip Bikle as editor and a staff of two. The paper struggled through the first years but its growth remained constant and it soon prospered. For 60 years it has chronicled the activities of our area with accuracy, and with love and affection. It has always been happiest when recording the good things that happen here. It has also had to record unpleasant events."

IMPARTIAL DAILY

"It is a source of pride to us that in recording the events of the area day by day we have been able to report far more stories of human kindness, of love, of devotion beyond the call of duty, of skill and of progress, than of hatred, scandal or anger."

"In its 62 years The Times has been nonpartisan and nonsectarian. It has reported with the same care the doings of Republicans and Democrats, of Catholics, Protestant and Jew, of white and Negro, of native born and immigrant the rich and poor. In 1924 The Times had three linotype machines and 16 employees. Now it has approximately 90 employees, plus carriers, correspondents, etc. and the machines by which it is produced have grown marvelous-

Rusk And Gromyko Report Making 'Some Progress' In Their Geneva Conference

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko announced today they have made "some progress" in their Geneva talks toward "clarifying points of agreement and points of difference" in the East-West dispute over Berlin.

Rusk flies back to Washington today to report to President Kennedy that the Berlin dispute remains perilous but is unlikely to explode into new crisis in the foreseeable future.

In a joint statement the two ministers said they agreed to "resume contact in an appropriate way" after reporting to their governments and consulting with their allies. It was expected they would resume discussions on Berlin through their ambassadors in Moscow and Washington.

FOLD TO POLICIES

There was no immediate explanation of what else was meant by "points of agreement" in the Berlin discussion. American sources have consistently reported that neither side made any change in its major policy position.

Rusk and Gromyko did apparently give each other the impression, however, that each believes it is important to continue discussing the dispute in order to keep it from getting out of hand.

American informants said that while neither minister gave ground, the talks were profitable. Gromyko reportedly left Rusk in no doubt that the Soviet government presently prefers to continue the discussion rather than force a new crisis. This could lead to a slow easing of East-West tensions over Berlin.

OTHERS LEAVING

Other foreign ministers who came here two weeks ago to get the 17-nation disarmament conference organized also are leaving this week. Ambassadors and special disarmament negotiators will carry on. U.S. officials estimate the conference will continue dicted numerous aviators would fly here to tour the battlefield and airlines would send in tour-tist groups.

Sullivan described a Class 2 airport which, he said, would require about 130 acres of land, a runway of 100 feet wide by 2,500 feet long, with accommodations for single and multiple engine planes up to 20,000 pounds gross weight. He said the most practical type airport to locate here would be the industrial air park type because Gettysburg does not have the population to support a regularly scheduled commercial flight.

Sullivan said that if plans are made for an airport here 50 per cent of the anticipated $200,000 cost could be obtained from the federal government, 25 per cent from the state and the remaining 25 per cent would have to be raised locally.

$153,000 IN EXPORTS FROM ADAMS IN '60

Adams County manufacturing establishments exported $153,000 worth of goods from the U. S. during 1960, according to a report from the state Department of Internal Affairs.

Three county plants sent goods to other countries, $13,000 worth directly from their own plants and $140,000 through intermediaries. The amount places Adams County 48th among the 67 counties of state in value of products exported.

According to the state Department of Internal Affairs' report, 1,568 manufacturers in Pennsylvania exported $747,246,000 worth of goods during that year. Allegheny County was highest in total amount of exports, with 160 plants sending out $221,410,000 worth of goods. Philadelphia had the largest number of exporters, 425, who sent out $146,507,000 worth of goods.

Among exports from the state were machinery, primary metals, electrical machinery, equipment and supplies, chemicals and allied products.

All but 10 of the 67 counties had one or more manufacturing exporters. The country importing the most from Pennsylvania firms is Canada, followed by Mexico, Puerto Rico, England, Venezuela, Australia, Germany, France, Italy, Japan, Union of South Africa, Belgium, Holland, Chile, Sweden, India, Panama, Philippines, Costa Rica and Switzerland. All told Pennsylvania plants exported to more than 100 countries.

"DEPEND ON YOURSELF"

There's only one way to be happy... and gather the best from this life... though many have tried to find short cuts... by using deception's sharp knife... it is a shortcoming of people... to seek out a smooth easy road... so few folks are ready and willing... to carry their share of the load... this racket of shifting the burden... its practiced wherever we go... in fact it is one of the reasons... for all of our trouble and woe... most people have two feet to stand on... why tread on the toes of your friends... try learning to be self-reliant... and yours will be great dividends... remember the things I have written... mankind respects those who are true... hold your head over the masses... set your goal and then follow through.

the consensus of everyone he had consulted was that Fronzizi's resignation was the only solution. Fronzizi's office confirmed that "the president of the nation expressed to Gen. Aramburo that he maintains firmly his decision not to resign his post."

Fronzizi appeared to stand nearly alone in the darkest hour of his four years in office. He had the backing only of a dihard segment of his own Radical Intransigent party.

"The only thing on his side is the constitution," said an associate dejectedly.

SUE FOR SUMS ON BUILDINGS

Actions in assumpsit against Stewart and Charles P. Waddell, Gettysburg R. 2, and L. P. Kookon Co., New Oxford, both involving payment for work on restaurants, have been filed in the prothonotary's office by Attorney Gerald Walmer.

R. S. Plank, 340 E. Middle St., is suing Stewart and Charles P. Waddell, Gettysburg R. 2, for $3,065 which he claims is still due for payment on work of construction of a restaurant on Gettysburg R. 2.

C. W. Test, Builder, Inc., Hanover, is suing L. P. Kookon Co., New Oxford, for $775.54 which it claims is still owed on work at the Butterbusch Restaurant, a mile south of Hampton.

In his suit, Charles W. Test, president of C. W. Test Builder, Inc., claims that during December, 1959, he met with L. P. Kookon at his request and went over repairs to the Butterbusch Restaurant and that agreement was reached concerning the work to be done. Later $620.51 of the $1,396.05 bill was paid, leaving $775.54 which it is alleged has not been paid.

The suit brought by R. S. Plank against the Waddells states that the restaurant was built for Stewart on land of his father, Charles P. Waddell, in 1959. The work included construction of a 60 by 30-foot brick restaurant for $4,400; $1,025.79 for work on the interior, installation of built-in gutters and plumbing performed by M. G. Shue and Son, Gettysburg R. 3, for $259.69. Payments of $1,374.21 in September, 1959, and $2,000 in October, 1959, are listed. The claim is made that $3,065.23 is still owed.

Hafer said it is anticipated that his committee will receive about 500 tickets. Requests already on hand will be honored. Future requests will be listed in the order received by the committee chairman and honored only as tickets become available.

The conference is expected to concentrate first on attempts at accord on limited arms controls that could pave the way for a summit meeting in May—just before a progress report is due the United Nations on June 1. If there is a meeting attended by President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev, Berlin also will be a major topic.

Rusk is expected to report to Kennedy that his talks with Gromyko disclosed no basic changes whatever in the Soviet demands for Western withdrawal from Berlin and for surrender of the Berlin access routes to full East German control.

Rusk will also report complete failure to make any progress toward a treaty to ban nuclear weapons tests. The Soviets refused to consider an international inspection system, as demanded by the Western powers, to police a test ban.

MODERN MACHINES

"The highly skilled technicians who work in our print shop and bindery have machines that were unheard of a few years ago. Where once The Times was printed on a slow moving flatbed press, now a rotary press rolls out the paper within minutes. Where once The Times was a four-page paper, now it prints an average of more than 10 pages a day, and sometimes in special editions, we have published with more than 100 pages.

"The Times believes that its duty lies in printing as accurately and as well as it can the events that transpire in the community and county—and let our subscribers form their own conclusions." Dr. Richard Newsham presided. Announcement was made of the District 739 convention to be held April 29 and 30 at Lancaster. Rev. Robert A. MacAskill and Dr. Kenneth Smoke led group singing.

The resignation of William H. Frock as tax collector of the borough of Gettysburg was received and accepted by the Adams County Court. Three applicants were named to fill Mr. Frock's unexpired term. Ernest G. Weaver, Harry E. Bumbaugh and Peter Culp. The matter was referred to the associate judges, who appointed Peter Culp.

New Express Company Here:
After Sunday the Adams Express Co. in Gettysburg will be a thing of the past. The American Express Co. taking its place at all places on the Western Maryland Railway lines. J. O. G. Weaver, for a number of years the local agent for the Adams, will continue as agent for the American. The American Express Co. is the largest company of the kind in the United States. The Wells Fargo Express ranks second and the Adams Express Company third.

Wanted At Once: Good man having boys or girls over age of 14 years to work in floor tile factory. Good large house to live in; also boys and girls wanted over 14 years old. Regular work and good wages for all. Penn Tile Works, Aspers, Pa.

A casual inspection of a few back yards in town would indicate that the teams of the borough highway force, which will aid in the municipal house cleaning on May 1st, will have plenty to do. A local citizen, peering over one alley fence, is quoted as saying that he saw one large pile of tin cans which would make at least one wagon load.

The Grocery Store of J. B. Wineman on Center Square has been purchased by N. L. Minter. Mr. Minter will actively conduct the business on and after April 1st. Green Goods tomorrow. Your patronage is respectfully solicited.

Plan Program For Chautauqua:
The Board of Managers of the Gettysburg Chautauqua met on Monday evening to consider the proposed program for this summer's assembly. Rev. S. Winfield Herman of Harrisburg, who is arranging the program of the Lutheran Summer Assembly to be held at the same time as the Chautauqua, expects to announce his speakers next week. Rev. Prof. Charles F. Sanders is completing his plans for the Summer School to precede the Chautauqua. The Chautauqua Chorus, which will give one of the evening entertainments, has started practice for that event and will continue work during the next few months.

Easter post cards are going through the mails in considerable quantities. The latest novelty is a card which squeaks every time it is given a little squeeze. The noise was at first mystifying to postal clerks until its source was discovered.

The members of the Senior Class at college started excavation this morning for a cement walk from the old dormitory to the center of the campus. Charles E. Lady will do the concrete work but the students will do everything else.

The alumni of Belmont School will give a play on Thursday evening, April 4, for purpose of purchasing a bell for the school. Piano music. Admission ten cents.

Today's Talk

HOW YOU CAN SUCCEED

In the first place you must want to succeed. After that it's like selecting the ways and means whereby you take a journey. But we will suggest a few ideas. First, it is most important that you believe in yourself! That will give confidence to the one who believes in you. And who of us can succeed without some rare spirit believing in us?

You must have an objective. And this objective must be as carefully planned out and outlined as is the drawing of the architect before the builder begins his work. Then you must lay the foundation. This is the most tedious and most discouraging of all your tasks. The long digging of the ground before the strong foundations are placed. Discouragements, hours of hopelessness, and that distressing something that eats away at your soul in its loneliness as you plod out the great desires of your heart.

But remember this: It often takes much longer to lay the foundation than to build the building itself. And the building is dependent wholly upon a strong foundation.

You say you want to become a writer. To write you must be able to feel deeply. To feel deeply you must know life. To know life you must have experience, you must have a background of all that goes to make life rich, broad and extensive. To write then becomes but a matter of expression—a revealing of your thoughts, a picturing of every joy and sorrow along the way of your life and of other lives.

We all have eyes to see and minds to interpret. But no two see or express what they see in the same manner, if they express sincerely.

If you aspire to write, then you must be you—none other! It is much easier to succeed than to fail. Success is always ahead—failure behind. You can learn to walk right past failure on your way to success. Good luck to you. You Adams—I know!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "A Little Sense."

THE HEART
It isn't the money you make,
It isn't the work that you do.
You can prosper and still be a fake;
You can lie, and be brilliant, too.
And vain are the glory and fame
That shall come from a conquering fight;
None shall joyfully mention your name
If your heart isn't right.

For the final result of a life
Isn't what did it do that was great;
Not, was it supreme in its strife,
Did it master the demons of fate,
But what did it do that was kind?
Was it fair, although armored by might?
Did it leave gentle memories behind?
Was the soul of it right?

Men are praised not so much for their skill
As they are for the good that they do.
Fame and glory a life will not fill,
For man's wonderful conquests are few;
And the money you make and the fame
Will vanish with you in the night,
And few will remember your name
If your heart isn't right.

PARET STILL CRITICAL AS GOVERNOR TO INVESTIGATE

NEW YORK (AP) — Benny (Kid) Paret continued in a coma today as Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller studied a rush report by the State Athletic Commission on the grudge fight that cost Paret his world welterweight title—and maybe his life.

A medical bulletin from Roosevelt Hospital said the 25-year-old Cuban-born boxer was in critical condition and the outlook was "extremely grave."

Emile Griffith, the new welterweight champion who battered Paret senseless at Madison Square Garden Saturday night, said in a radio interview:

ALL A NIGHTMARE
"It's all a nightmare. I pray for Benny's recovery very fast. It's all in God's hands."

The State Athletic Commission went into secret session Monday under orders from the governor, who had said he was "deeply concerned and disturbed."

The commission viewed films of the fight, which was seen by millions on television, and heard testimony from nine witnesses.

The principal witness was referee Ruby Goldstein, who has been criticized by the Paret camp for not stopping the fight sooner in the 12th round when Griffith kept bashing Paret's head, caught between the ropes.

SLIM CHANCE
Dr. John Crisp, a chief surgical resident at Roosevelt Hospital, said Paret "is being maintained under hypothermia (treatment to lower his body requirements)."

Crisp said at a news conference that the chances are 10,000 to 1 against Paret's ever regaining full control of his body after the brain damage he suffered. The doctor said that if he lives he might remain in a coma for a year or more.

Brain surgery was performed on Paret early Sunday.
His pregnant wife, Lucy, has been keeping vigil at the hospital since she flew here from Miami Sunday.

TWO HAD GRUDGE

There had been bad blood between Paret and Griffith for about a year, during which they fought three times, and Saturday night's fight was a real grudge affair.

Griffith admittedly was angry over remarks by Paret that challenged his manhood. Griffith, a millinery designer out of the ring, had said Paret cursed and insulted him before and during the fight.

"I'm sorry now that I ever became a fighter," Griffith said. "I guess I'll go on fighting sometime, somewhere, but I don't want to think about it now."

JAMES Son of Alphaeus

"And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him . . . Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus . . ."

—Mark III:14,18

No name in the New Testament has caused quite so much confusion as that of James.

The reason is that in different places we read variously of James the son of Alphaeus, James the brother of the Lord; and of James the Less.

Are all these one and the same person? Catholic scholars for the most part say yes. Many Protestant authorities agree with them.

But then another question arises. What is meant by the designation, "brother of the Lord?"

Catholic interpreters assert that the Greek word, "adelphos," used in this reference, can mean step-brother or even a near relative.

Therefore, they argue, James was not the brother of Jesus in the literal sense—that is, he was not the son of Mary, the Virgin. It is more likely, they contend, that he was the son of the Virgin's sister, and therefore a cousin of Jesus.

In the early Church, the Greek fathers believed him to be the son of Joseph by a first marriage. Latin writers of the same period, however, all regarded James as the cousin of Jesus, since they taught that Mary remained a virgin all her life.

Whatever his exact relation to Jesus, James held a position of great respect among the Apostles.

It is said that after the martyrdom of St. Stephen, the other Apostles chose James to preside over affairs of the church in Jerusalem. Hence, he is sometimes referred to as the Bishop of Jerusalem.

According to the historian Hegesippus, who lived toward the end of the second century, James made a public declaration of his faith from one of the Temple ramps, and was hurled to the ground by angry scribes and Pharisees. He was not killed by the fall, so his attackers then stoned him. As he was being killed, so the account goes, he called upon God to forgive his murderers.

Open New GOP Headquarters In Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP) — Republican Congressman William W. Scranton promises an all out effort to end chronic unemployment in Pennsylvania if elected governor next November.

Good jobs for all and money in everybody's pocket — that's the aim of the Republican Party, Scranton said Monday in a campaign speech from the back of a rented truck.

The occasion was the official opening of a new Scranton-Van Zandt primary campaign headquarters in Harrisburg.

"Pennsylvania has been in a steadily downward spiral" since the Democrats took over seven years ago, "but under Republicans, we will go back up," he told a cheering crowd of some 150 party faithful.

He pointed to unemployment as one of the key issues of the campaign.

OTHERS PARTICIPATING

Joining Scranton at the brief ceremonies were his three GOP running mates—U.S. Rep. James E. Van Zandt of Altoona, candidate for the U.S. Senate; State Sen. Raymond P. Shafer of Meadville, candidate for lieutenant governor; and Mrs. Audrey Kelly of Montrose, candidate for secretary of internal affairs.

Van Zandt said: "Republicans and others in this state are just waiting for the signal to go."

He took note of a young male enthusiast in the crowd who was waving a handmade banner bearing the slogan: "G.O.P. Power."

Shafer also received an enthusiastic reception when he stated: "This is our year. We're off to a very good start. It's a year of decision and with your help we will make that decision a favorable one, not only for the Republican Party but for the people of Pennsylvania."

BRIEF PEP TALK

Mrs. Kelly arrived late, but managed to catch the tail-end of the rally. She climbed up an aluminum stepladder onto the back of the truck and gave a brief pep talk, ending with the plea: "I hope you'll all be with us on election day."

Prominent among the spectators was State Sen. M. Harvey Taylor of Harrisburg, a long-time power in GOP politics and a leading backer of Superior Court Judge Robert E. Woodslee, who stepped aside five weeks ago as a gubernatorial candidate in favor of Scranton.

Taylor, 85, chatted with the 44-year-old Scranton for several minutes before the rally, then commented to people around him: "He's all right."

second place winner. He will serve a similar internship at $90 a week. Each of the 11 finalists were honored at ceremonies presided over by State Secretary of Internal Affairs Genevieve Blatt, Gov. Lawrence presented the awards to each finalist.

Separate Collar Is On Way Out

NEW YORK (AP)—It might have been expected, what with the decline of the mustache and the watch chain, that the separate shirt collar also would go.

"For all practical purposes the separate collar is no longer a part of the American scene," said Phillips-Van Heusen Corp. today in announcing it was dropping the line after 60 years.

Cluett-Peabody & Co., another large manufacturer, declined comment on its competitor's announcement.

Phillips-Van Heusen says the separate collar has, in recent years, been almost wholly supplanted by the collar-attached shirt. In 1934 it sold 24 million a year, in 1961 just 18,000.

Hoke is one of four repeaters from last year's all-star team, the others being Carl Dixon, Greencastle; Rick Dubose and Robert Hollinger, both of Scotland.

The all-star selections follow: FIRST TEAM

Greencastle, as the overall champion and Franklin County titlist, received two team trophies. Bermudian received a trophy as the Adams Division champion and runnerup.

Scotland was presented the sportsmanship award upon a vote by the coaches.

Fifteen gold basketballs were awarded to members of the championship Greencastle squad and 15 silver balls to Bermudian.

STUDY NEW SETUP

A committee to study a new realignment for the league was named including Selon Dockey, New Oxford; Richard Martz, Greencastle, and representatives of Quincy, Scotland and Littlestown. At present the Franklin Division has six teams and the Adams Division has four. The committee will report on its study at the next meeting to be held October 29 at Fairfield.

George Inskip, Fairfield, league president, presided at the meeting as toastmaster and presented the awards.

Approximately 50 representatives of all schools, excepting James Buchanan, attended. The dinner was prepared by the Fairfield High School cafeteria staff.

Warner, Phelan To Be Honored Tonight

Two area sports figures will be signally honored tonight at the 16th annual awards banquet of the Philadelphia Sportswriters Basketball Club.

Ronnie Warner, Gettysburg College all-time scoring champion, and Jim Phelan, Mt. St. Mary's College coach, will receive recognition.

Warner was recently selected by Philadelphia scribes as the outstanding visiting player to perform during the season at LaSalle College. Phelan, a former LaSalle College star, was chosen as the NCAA small college coach of the year after guiding Mt. St. Mary's to the NCAA college division championship this year.

Three Cycle Cards At Williams Grove

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa.—Those daredevils of the speedway will make three appearances at Bob Richwine's Williams Grove Speedway in 1962. Sanctioned by the American Motorcycle Association, the masters of the handlebars will again highlight the racing season.

Class C motorcycles under the direction of AMA district referee, Al Walters, Dillsburg, will first move into "the Grove" on Sunday, May 13. Action will be open to three classes, expert, novice and amateur, with three events in each class. Other "cycle races" are scheduled for July 1 and August 26.

Winningest pitcher on the roster of the Houston Colts is Dean Stone, 32-year-old southpaw, who won 12 games for Charleston, W. Va., in the International League in 1961.

BILLY CASPER COPS $50,000 GOLF TOURNEY

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—It was right there for the taking—a bundle of cash bigger than he had yet dared to dream of, and an upset golf victory of major proportions.

Paul Bondeson, a remarkable young player at 22, but still a bit gun-shy in the company of the great, had it right in his hands in Monday's final round of the $50,000 Doral Country Club Open.

But when the showdown came on the final holes and the $9,000 winner's purse rode with every stroke, the tournament-tested veteran, Bill Casper, pushed through to win in dramatic fashion over the nervous rookie.

Leading Casper by four strokes through the 11th, Bondeson finally got the jitters and lost his entire margin on two straight double bogies.

NICKLAUS THIRD

Casper wound up with a 71 for a four-round total of 283, five under par, and one stroke ahead of Bondeson, who slipped to a 73.

The green youngster still won $4,600 for second place, however—sufficient money to keep him on the tour at a time when he was about to give up for lack of funds and return to Northbrook, Ill., where he is a teaching pro.

Casper's victory boosted him from 16th to 4th among 1962 golf money winners with a total of $15,048.

Jack Nicklaus, another bright young star who has competed in only 10 tournaments, took third in the Doral at 235 and won $3,000, the biggest purse of his career.

The old master, Ben Hogan, tied with Ted Kroll for fourth at 286.

Arnold Palmer's 11th place finish and $1,230 check made him the year's biggest money winner with $15,408 as the previous leader, Gene Littler, finished out of the money.

M'GUIRE HOPES FOR GOOD TILT

By GEORGE ESPER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"We're definitely up for the game. We think we have to win if we're going anywhere. If we don't win we'll be in bad shape."

That's the way Coach Frank McGuire of the Philadelphia Warriors sizes up tonight's contest world champion Boston in Convention Hall, the second game of the best-of-seven series of the National Basketball Association Eastern Division final playoffs.

He told the commission, Anthracite plans to build a track near the intersection of the Keystone Expressway, about a mile north of Drums, Luzerne County.

Nicholas J. Rafferty, a Philadelphia accountant, testified that the plant would be financed by the sale of 500,000 shares of stock—$350,000 to 17 initial incorporators and subscribers and the rest in public issue at a probable price of $5 a share.

The Pocono group, meanwhile, proposes to build its track near the Wilkes-Barre Interchange of the Northeast Extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

One of the key issues in the deadlock has been the repeated charge that Anthracite President Fred R. Corrae formerly associated with known underworld figures.

The accusations were denied emphatically by Corrae at a hearing last summer.

DENIALS UNDER OATH

He repeated the denials Monday, stating under oath:

"I've never associated with hoodlums."

So far, the commission has awarded track licenses to two groups in the Philadelphia area and one in Washington County.

After discussing the Pocono-Anthracite situation at length, Commission Chairman L. B. Shepard told newsmen he and the other two commissioners met with racing experts over the weekend to talk over proposed harness racing regulations in Pennsylvania.

"No rules were adopted, but the meeting was one of the most productive I have ever attended," Shepard said.

WARRIORS ARE HAPPY WITH 9 DRAFT PICKS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Coach Frank McGuire of the Philadelphia Warriors said today he has seen both Wayne Hightower and Hubie White perform and is convinced they can make it in the National Basketball Association.

The 6-9 Hightower, a product of Philadelphia's Overbrook High School and Kansas like Wilt Chamberlain, was drafted No. 1 by the Warriors Monday in the NBA annual draft. White, 6-4 Villanova star, was selected second.

"We played Kansas last year when I was coaching at North Carolina," said McGuire. "He (Hightower) showed me enough for me to know he can play the corner, which is what we went hunting for."

BOLSTERS LINE

Hightower, who played for the Real Madrid team the past season while attending the University of Madrid, would bolster the Warriors' front line. It would give them three big men with 7-2 Chamberlain and 6-6 Tom Meschery.

McGuire said White will "have a year or so to adjust himself from a corner and pivotman into the backcourt."

OTHER CHOICES

The other Warriors' choices were, in the following order, Dave Feder, Florida State; Garry Roggenbuck, of the NIT champion Dayton Flyers; Jack Jackson, Virginia Union; Jim Hudock, North Carolina; Bill Montgomery, Pan American; Bill Kervin, Xavier; and Tom Kiefer, St. Louis.

Syracuse picked Len Chappell, Wake Forest's All-America from Portage, Pa.

Mike Rice of Duquesne was selected by Detroit.

McAteer of LaSalle was drafted by St. Louis. McAteer, also selected by Pittsburgh of the American Basketball League, apparently won't play professional ball. He has been accepted by the Villanova University Law School.

GRIFFITH IS WORRIED OVER PARET'S LIFE

By ED CORRIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Three days after he regained the world welterweight championship, Emile Griffith walks the streets of New York sleepless, haggard, grim-faced.

"No," said Griffith today, "I haven't had much sleep. I've been doing a lot of thinking and praying."

Saturday night in Madison Square Garden, Griffith, a New Yorker who was born in the Virgin Islands, knocked out Benny (Kid) Paret in the 12th round in their world welterweight title bout.

Paret still hasn't regained consciousness. He lies in Roosevelt Hospital, four holes drilled in his skull to relieve the effects of two blood clots near his brain. He is hanging onto a thin thread of life.

HAT DESIGNER

"No, I haven't seen him," Griffith said. "I was at the hospital a couple of times. Once they wouldn't let me upstairs. When I went back some of Benny's friends were in the hall and I decided that I'd better not go in."

Griffith, a hat designer when he isn't in the ring, is tormented by the fact that there were hard feelings between him and Paret before the fight. He is the first to admit it.

"Now," he said sadly, "they're trying to get me to say I wanted to kill him. All I wanted was to be champion again. I didn't want to hurt him."

"People come up to me and say how come a sweet little boy like you who designs hats can turn tiger and hurt a man's brain. They all say that. When I got in the ring I forgot I was mad at him."

"Now I can't sleep and they won't even let me see him."

Griffith said he visited Msgr. Philip J. Nolan at St. Malachy's Catholic church, around the corner from the Garden, where his comanager Gil Caly, worships.

"The monsignor told me we can do nothing but pray and wait for God to make his decision," said Griffith. "He'll pull it out. He must for his wife and child. I can't think of her going through the rest of her life hating me."

Uniontown Cagers Being Honored

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—This southwestern Pennsylvania community is going all out to honor its state high school championship basketball team.

Two parades already have been held since Uniontown High School returned victorious from Harrisburg after beating Norristown 70-57 for the PIAA Class A title Saturday. And there's another parade on tap later this week.

Thousands of persons cheered the team and the entire school student body Monday in a ticker-tape march down main street.

Sunday an estimated 50,000 persons jammed a three-mile route in a welcoming celebration.

A banquet in honor of Coach Abe Everhart's squad was held Monday night by the Uniontown Exchange Club.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS TO START TONIGHT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The defending champion Chicago Black Hawks tangle with the revenge-minded Montreal Canadiens and the New York Rangers meet the Toronto Maple Leafs tonight as the Stanley Cup semifinals get under way on two National Hockey League fronts.

The Hawks, who carted home the cup last year after the Canadiens had won it five years in a row, are in Montreal for the first two games. The Rangers, who haven't won the cup since 1940 and haven't made the playoffs since 1958, and the Leafs, whose last Stanley Cup triumph was in 1951, will play their first two games in Toronto.

WEST OF SEVEN

The semifinals are best-of-seven events.

Despite finishing third in the regular-season race, the Hawks are given a chance to whip the Canadiens because they have the greater size (important in a short series), the league's top goal-getter (Bobby Hull) and one of the most effective goalies (Glenn Hall).

Furthermore, Montreal's speedy center, Henri Richard, is sidelined with a broken wrist.

STOP HULL

The Canadiens' big problem will be to stop Hull, the 23-year-old whiz who scored his 50th goal of the season Sunday to tie the record of most goals in a single campaign held by Rocket Richard and Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffron.

Hull has scored 35 goals in the last 31 games, a fantastic pace, and said when he arrived in Montreal:

"I don't see any reason why I can't keep up the pace. I'll sure be shooting."

The Rangers, who barely squeezed into the playoffs, finished in fourth place, 21 points behind the Maple Leafs. To make their picture even blacker, they lost all seven of their games at Maple Leaf Gardens last season.

HOOK BLASTED BY ORIOLES; REDBIRDS WIN

By JIM HACKLEMAN

With only two weeks to go before New York's spanking new Mets begin firing in earnest, Casey Stengel wanted to take a good long look at one of his front-line pitchers—Jay Hook.

It turned out a shattering experience, for the grizzled old Casey, and for the young right-hander.

Facing the Baltimore Orioles Monday before a meager turnout of 736 spectators at Miami Stadium, Hook was belted with abandon as the American League club bombed the new National League entry 18-8.

The Orioles rocked Hook for six innings, clipping him for 17 of their 21 hits and 16 of their runs, with a finishing burst of 9 hits and 8 runs in the sixth. They collected two more runs and four hits against rookie Evans Killeen.

Included in the outburst against Hook were two homers by Dave Nicholson, and one each by Brooks Robinson, John Powell and Russ Snyder.

HELD NO GRUDGE

Hook, a $125,000 premier player drafted by the Mets from Cincinnati, was distraught at the pounding but emphasized he held no grudge against Stengel for leaving him in.

HOPES FADING FOR BALANCED BUDGET IN '62

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's hopes for a balanced budget in the coming fiscal year are fading fast, due partly to legislative proposals and partly to the economy's recent sluggishness.

While administration officials refuse to concede that the battle is lost, they are increasingly less certain about achieving their economic and budgetary goals.

In January, Kennedy proposed spending $92,537,000,000 in the 1962 fiscal year which begins July 1. He foresaw record revenues of $93 billion—enough to produce a slim surplus of $463 million.

BIGGEST DAMPER

The slower rate of economic advance early in 1962 has put the biggest damper on January's optimism. Other factors have added to the potential swing toward continued red ink spending.

For instance, enactment of the public works program which Kennedy proposed Monday would add $350 million to spending. The tax reform bill awaiting House action would subtract $350 million from revenues.

The public works program, for areas of high unemployment, would whittle the indicated surplus to $113 million. The tax bill, if also enacted, would swing the budget into the red by $237 million.

OTHER FACTORS

These figures assume, of course, that all other factors would remain unchanged—which they won't. On the one hand, Congress will be paring down the administration's spending plans. On the other, the possibility of a less vigorous economic advance will present a threat to revenues.

In the January-March quarter, the gross national products—GNP—apparently totaled about $550 billion, at an annual rate. This would be $3 billion to $4 billion short of January forecasts.

SHERIFF KILLER TO SEEK STAY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The attorney for convicted sheriff killer John Butler will seek a stay of execution from the Third Circuit Court of Appeals next Monday.

Mrs. Marjorie Matson said Monday she will seek the stay for the 33-year-old Girardville man while she prepares to appeal a U. S. District Court ruling.

Judge Herbert Sorg of the U. S. District Court threw out a writ of habeas corpus for Butler last week. At the same time, he ordered that a stay of execution be granted Butler in February be lifted as of April 2.

Butler was convicted of killing Sheriff James Lauer of Northumberland County in 1959.

Bobby Hull Wins NHL Scoring Title

MONTREAL (AP)—Bobby Hull of the Chicago Black Hawks is the National Hockey League's official scoring champion for the 1961-62 season, although he and Andy Bathgate of the New York Rangers tied with 84 points.

The league office, reporting the final statistics today, said Hull will receive the scoring trophy because he scored 50 goals to 28 for Bathgate, but each will receive a $1,000 bonus that goes to the scoring leader.

The Vezina Trophy, for the goal of the league's least scored-on team, will go to Jacques Plante of Montreal for the sixth time. Plante allowed 166 goals in 70 games, an average of 2.37 goals per game. In addition to the trophy, Plante also gets a $1,000 bonus.

Hull—also champion in 1960—wound up with 50 goals—matching the season record set by Rocket Richard and matched later by Boom Boom Geoffrion Bathgate was the leader with 56 assists.

Chuck Weber May Play With Skins

WASHINGTON (AP) — Coach Bill McPeak of the Washington Redskins says he expects to know by Wednesday whether linebacker Chuck Weber will sign a contract with the National Football League club.

The Redskins Monday picked up Weber, former West Chester State star, for the $100 waiver price from the Philadelphia Eagles. He was a key man in the Eagles' 1960 drive to the NFL title but was benched midway through last season. He reportedly was considering retiring.

"I was surprised to see Weber's name on the list," said McPeak. Buddy Parker (Pittsburgh coach) told me he'd take him if I didn't."

Weber is married and makes his home at Willow Grove, Pa.

In six full seasons in the majors, Detroit outfielder Rocky Colavito has batted in a total of 900 runs.

The 11th annual Syracuse Regatta will be held at Onondaga Lake near Syracuse, Saturday, June 16.

EX-JANITOR ARRESTED ON BANK THEFT

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The FBI says an Eddystone man who was fired from his job as a school janitor signed a statement admitting he attempted to rob a bank Monday.

The man, Thomas A. McNicholas, 38, was charged with attempted robbery of the federally insured Chester Branch of the Delaware County National Bank.

McNicholas was arrested at his home seven hours after the attempt. He was arraigned Monday night before U. S. Commissioner Edward W. Furia. McNicholas was released in $1,500 bail pending a further hearing April 9.

FOILED ATTEMPT

Mrs. Katherine Lewis, of Village Green, near Chester, foiled the holdup by ignoring the man's threat to blow up the bank if she didn't hand over $10,000, authorities said.

Authorities quoted Mrs. Lewis as saying that the man, who seemed to her to be sick and "very nervous," approached her window and displayed a medicine bottle.

"This is a bottle of nitro," the man was quoted as saying "Give me $10,000 or I'll blow up the bank."

COLOR OF WATER

Detective Capt. Paul McKinney said Mrs. Lewis looked at the bottle and felt he was bluffing.

"I know that nitro has a yellow tint," McKinney quoted her as saying. "And this was the color of water. I turned my back and walked to tell the head teller, Edward McGlennen, but he was on the phone. By the time he got off, the man had walked out the door."

F. A. Frohbose, special agent in charge of the FBI here, said investigators from the FBI and Chester Police Department found that McNicholas went to a nearby taproom after leaving the bank. Frohbose said he discarded a brown paper bag there, then went to see a doctor and visited another taproom before going home.

LEADERS CHANGED

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — Jerry Coplan, Vincennes, Ind., and Gene Skelton, Evansville, Ind., combined for 1,335 to replace Mark Guinter and Ervin Weaver, Williamsport, Pa., in first place in the American Bowling Congress Tournament's regular division doubles Monday. The Pennsylvania pair had held the top spot since March 2 on a 1,332.

Shenango Bowl-A-Way, New Castle, Pa., held second place in the Booster Teams Division with a 2,807 total.

Warren Mehrkens, who rode Assault to victory in the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont in 1946, is now a patrol judge at New York thoroughbred tracks. Gerry Leeman, Lehigh University wrestling coach, won the 128-pound title in the 1946 NCAA championships.

Nehru's Daughter In Plane Affair

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—A jet airliner carrying Mrs. Indira Gandhi, daughter of India's Prime Minister Nehru, was forced to make an unscheduled landing here Monday night.

Northwest Airlines said the Boeing 720, carrying Mrs. Gandhi from Washington, D. C., to Seattle, showed unusually high oil consumption, and the pilot decided to land.

State Department personnel accompanying Mrs. Gandhi resumed their flight within an hour, but Mrs. Gandhi remained in Spokane overnight.

Youth Arrested In Shotgun Robbery

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Two South Philadelphia youths were arrested Monday night and charged with wounding a Philadelphia Transportation Co. bus driver with a shotgun during a robbery attempt March 12.

Police picked up the youths at their homes. They were identified as Spencer Dobson, 20, and Charles Johnson, 16.

The two were charged with shooting Joseph Boogay, 45, of Darby, in the left arm. He still is undergoing treatment at a hospital.

Police Capt. Joseph Golden said Dobson admitted taking part in the holdup attempt and named Johnson as the alleged gunman.

Police said both youths were Negroes.

Sweeney Holds 5-Point Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Defending champion Bill Sweeney of Springfield has opened a five-point lead in the American Hockey League scoring race going into the last week of the season.

Sweeney, with four points last week and two games to go, has 96 points on 37 goals and 59 assists, league statistics showed today. Teammate Brian Kilrea, blanked last week, is second with 20 goals and a league-leading 71 assists, for 91 points.

If Sweeney holds his lead, he'll be only the second player in league history to win the title in successive years. Jack Markle of Syracuse did it in 1937 and 1938. Sweeney won the title last year with 108 points.

Marcel Paille of Springfield is the leading goalie with a 2.54 average for 44 games. Denis DeJours of Buffalo leads in shutouts with 8.

School Is Closed After Explosion

GREENVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Commodore Perry High School in nearby Shakleville remained closed today following an explosion in the boiler room that routed 900 pupils.

School officials say classes will resume Wednesday after state and local investigators have an opportunity to complete their inspection to determine the cause of the blast.

The blast rocked the school Monday, cracking the chimney and walls, but there was no trace of fire and nobody was reported hurt. The pupils were safely evacuated.

Gas was turned off following the blast, although the cause was not immediately determined.

FILIBUSTER ENDS ON POLL TAX QUESTION

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate goes back to its regular schedule today after Southerners suddenly broke off their 10-day filibuster against an antipoll tax amendment.

Senate leaders now feel the amendment will sail through the Senate by the end of the week.

The debate, which stopped committee hearings and held up other legislation, ended late Monday. The Senate then agreed 62 to 15 to take up the minor bill—to make Alexander Hamilton's home a national monument—that will serve as the vehicle for the amendment.

After the vote Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois told newsmen he was confident the matter would be cleaned up this week with overwhelming passage of the amendment.

DEMOCRATS HOPEFUL

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said he was quite hopeful of the same outcome. One Southern senator said privately he felt the final vote would come by the end of this week.

The Southerners had tied up almost all Senate business with their word war, but they folded late Monday without using all of the weapons at their command.

Each senator was entitled to speak twice, but several Southerners did not bother to make their second speech, even though they oppose the poll tax ban.

The sudden decision to end the speeches apparently meant the Southerners fighting the antipoll tax measure were convinced they had built up a satisfactory record of opposition with the voters in their home states.

FIVE STATES LEVY

The proposed constitutional amendment would make it impossible for any state to impose a poll tax as a prerequisite for voting in a federal election. Five states—Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, Texas and Virginia—now have such a levy.

In Monday's vote, 14 Southerners joined by Sen. J. J. Hickey, D-Wyo., opposed bringing up the Hamilton bill; no Republicans supported them.

Backing the motion were 26 Republicans and 36 Democrats, including five Southern Democrats—Sens. Spessard L. Holland of Florida, Russell B. Long of Louisiana, B. Everett Jordan of North Carolina, Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, and Ralph W. Yarborough of Texas.

SAYS SOLDIER WAS "WARNED" OF CRITICISM

By JACK OWENS

FT. POLK, La. (AP)—An Army captain testified he warned a reservist he would be subject to a court-martial if the soldier's criticisms of his commanding general were published.

Capt. Gerland R. MacManus gave that report at a special court-martial trying Pfc. Bernis Owen, 23, of Seadrift, Tex. Owen is charged with disrespect as a result of his statements about the general's order banning "we want out" demonstrations by reservists recalled to active duty.

The soldier is accused of terming the order "hilarious" and the

Says Women Key To Acute Shortage

NEW YORK (AP)—A government recruiter says that women may provide the ultimate answer to the acute shortage of engineers for aerospace and missile work.

William Howe, chief regional recruiter for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said in an interview, "We're definitely trying to interest high school and college girls in engineering."

"Without interesting women, we just can't see how we're going to meet our long range personnel objectives."

Howe joined scores of talent hunters from private segments of the aerospace and electronics industries in an elaborate project for interviewing engineers assembled here for the 1962 convention of the Institute of Radio Engineers.

"climax of a long chain of injustices."

The defense contended Owen told a New Orleans newsmen who interviewed him by long distance telephone that the statement could not be used unless the newsmen first cleared it with military authorities.

ASKED CLEARING

The order banning protest demonstrations, issued last week by Maj. Gen. Harley B. West, commander of the post, followed a series of meetings by several hundred reservists.

The prosecution introduced a signed statement in which Owen acknowledged making critical remarks, but the soldier added the United Press International newsmen promised to get the comment cleared by military authorities.

MacManus, Owen's company commander, said he listened to the interview on an extension telephone and warned Owen during the call that Owen would face court-martial if the comment were published.

NOT WIRETOP DEVICE

The defense continually objected that MacManus' action in listening to Owen's conversation was illegal and contrary to provisions against revealing wiretap evidence. The court ruled it did not believe an extension telephone was a wiretap device.

MacManus testified, "Owen kept telling him (the newsmen) to clear with the PIO (public information officer). He told him at least three times. I told him (Owen) he was subject to court-martial if that was published."

MacManus said Owen followed his instructions, even to repeating to the newsmen some things the captain said.

Defense counsel succeeded in striking two of the three counts against Owen on grounds all were for the same offense.

DECISION MAY AFFECT EVERY STATE IN U.S.

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court's action to place the question of equitable state legislative districting before the federal courts could have a chain reaction on American politics.

While the Tennessee case on which the court ruled Monday involved only legislative redistricting, politicians suspect that if the U.S. courts can decide such matters it might not be long until they were asked to consider congressional districting.

Just as they have with state legislatures, many city voters have felt they have far less representation in Congress than the rural population.

ALREADY CHANGED

As an example, 59,063 voters turned out when Rep. Ralph J. Rivers, a Democrat, was elected at large in Alaska in 1960. But 406,995 went to the polls when GOP Rep. Marguerite Stitt Church won in the 13th District of Illinois, a Chicago suburban area.

In Southern districts where there is no Republican opposition, fewer than 25,000 persons often officially choose a representative in the general election.

Most of the states have completed their changes of congressional district boundary lines on the basis of state population gains or losses shown by the 1960 census.

Many of these changes were made by legislatures under control of rural representatives who could be expected to protect as much as possible the interests of congressmen more concerned with agricultural than city problems.

AFFECTS EVERY STATE

Charles S. Rhyne, an attorney for the urban Tennessee voters, said the court's decision will affect every state and "could pretty well shift control of state legislatures to urban areas."

The extent to which the city vs. country controversy has progressed is demonstrated by the fact that in many other states suits are pending similar to that instituted in Tennessee.

Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga., denounced the ruling directing federal courts to hear legislative apportionment cases as being in "direct violation of the constitutional doctrine of separation of the powers upon which our republican form of government is based."

Rep. Howard H. Baker, R-Tenn., was pleased with the decision. He predicted that "reapportionment as required by the Tennessee constitution will result from a hearing on the merits of the case."

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., called the decision "one of the most far-reaching ever rendered." He said it "sweeps away the balance of powers between legislative, executive and judicial functions."

Much of the wheat farm area of Minnesota, North Dakota and parts of Canada were once Lake Agassiz.

Robert Frost Has 88th Birthday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert Frost, acclaimed by leaders of government and the world of letters as "the all American and all time poet," has made an 88th birthday pledge—in verse—that his latest book of poetry won't be his last.

Chief Justice Earl Warren proposed the toast to Frost at a black tie dinner Monday night. More than an hour later, after speeches of praise and readings from his poetry, Frost took the microphone to read one himself.

the last poem in his new book "In the Clearing." He read it twice, "so you'll remember." "I see for nature no defeat. In one tree's overthrow. Or for myself in my retreat. For yet another blow." "Got it?" he asked. "That's the whole poem. That's to tell you there's another book coming." More than 200 persons, among them Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, other Cabinet members, congressmen, diplomats and jurists, attended the birthday dinner given by Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall and by Holt, Rinehart & Winston, Frost's publishers.

NICE WEATHER SMILES UPON MOST OF U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pleasant early spring weather prevailed across the major part of the nation today.

There were a few sections hit by light rain or snow but skies generally were fair and temperatures comparatively mild.

The only wet spots during the night were in parts of New England, with drizzle and light snow; the Pacific Northwest with showers and occasional rain, and in the eastern Carolinas which reported showers.

Fog blanketed the snow-covered area of the extreme eastern Dakotas, northern Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

In Iowa, floods threatened Sioux City and Spencer as the melt of the heavy snow covering sent rivers out of their banks. Sioux City was threatened by overflows from the Floyd River on the east side of the city and by the Big Sioux River on the west side.

SOME FLOODING

The Little Sioux River gave concern to Spencer, with a predicted crest of 20 feet, 10 feet above flood stage.

In Nebraska, West Point and Valley, in the northeast section, were hardest hit by the flooding Elkhorn River. Ten blocks of West Point, a town of about 2,600, were flooded, forcing the evacuation on Sunday of some 200 persons. An ice jam broke again Monday pouring more water over the inundated section.

In Valley, where 90 per cent of the village had been flooded Monday, the water began flowing out late in the day.

Temperatures were in the 40s and 50s during the early morning most of the country. Below freezing marks were confined to most sections of the Great Lakes region, the upper Mississippi Valley and eastern South Dakota.

Red Defector Is In Red Embassy

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—Alexei Golub, the Soviet biochemist whose defection last fall led to an airport fight between Dutch and Soviet officials, wants to return to the Soviet Union, the Foreign Ministry announced today.

The Foreign Ministry said Golub is in the Soviet Embassy and has asked for his passport.

The ministry ordered an investigation to make sure that Golub wanted to return home of his own free will.

A spokesman for the Soviet Embassy refused to comment but confirmed that Golub was in the embassy building.

The 35-year-old scientist asked for asylum last October while visiting the Netherlands with a group of Soviet tourists. His wife chose to return to the Soviet Union after a dramatic meeting with her husband at the Amsterdam airport.

Jackie Resting Before Luncheon

LONDON (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy went to bed early Monday night in a Georgian house near Buckingham Palace, resting after her strenuous two-week visit to India and Pakistan.

America's First Lady was frankly tired. She told reporters and photographers, "I promise you not the slightest bit of news in London. Unless, that is, you can shoot pictures through a bedroom window at a girl asleep."

Mrs. Kennedy slipped into the heavily guarded seclusion of the small town house of her brother-in-law and sister, Prince and Princess Stanislas Radzwill. A detail from Scotland Yard guarded the house outside and American security men were inside.

The First Lady's only announced engagement of her three-day stopover in London is a luncheon with Queen Elizabeth II Wednesday at Buckingham Palace.

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China's rubber-stamp Parliament opened its first session in two years in Peiping today.

LAWRENCE BACKS RECENT COURT RULE

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence said today that a U.S. Supreme Court ruling giving federal courts jurisdiction in state legislative reapportionment "basically is a good thing."

"Legislatures generally have not kept up with it (reapportionment) and there has been a lot of dissatisfaction as a result," the governor told his weekly news conference.

The Supreme Court ruled Monday that a U.S. District Court in Tennessee had jurisdiction in a suit brought by a taxpayer seeking to have the state legislature reapportionment legislative districts.

"The Supreme Court has spoken," said Lawrence, when asked if the state would make any attempt to oppose or back up the ruling. "They have said this is the law."

CITES OWN VIEWS

But, he said, quoting an anonymous source, "Let 'em enforce it."

At the same time the chief executive outlined his own views on how reapportionment should be handled.

"It would be a much better system if some outside agency did it," he said.

The problem in legislative reapportionment, the governor contended, is that there is a "stepping on toes of the individuals involved."

The Pennsylvania Legislature failed to reapportion congressional and legislative districts in the 1961 session. A special session in January resolved the congressional reapportionment problem, but there was no action on legislative seats.

The House was last reapportioned in 1953; the Senate in 1922.

BEAUTY IN THE DUMP

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Dayton is trying to spruce up its city dumps.

Supt. William Price of the Division of Waste Collection figures cities always will need dumps, but adds:

"A landfill doesn't have to be an unsightly place, nor does it need to deteriorate the surrounding neighborhood."

City crews are planting trees along the dump boundaries and putting in grass seed.

SCHOOL'S OUT

LOCKPORT, N. Y. (AP)—The pent-up energy of a young boy was released at the end of the school year when he tore up his notebook and scattered the papers on lawns near his school. City detectives found the boy's name on one of the scraps and made him clean up the entire mess.

Cuba Raps U. S. Boxing Methods

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Havana Radio said the critical injury of welterweight champion Benny Paret was a result of what it called criminal methods of professional boxing in the United States.

Paret, 25-year-old Cuban, lost his world title to Emile Griffith after being knocked out Saturday.

Havana, Radio, monitored here Monday, said professional boxing in the United States "is being run by real gangsters who are interested only in filling their bags with dollars and do not have the least regard for the lives of the fighters."

The broadcast also scored referee Ruby Goldstein, saying he was negligent in not stopping the fight earlier.

person, cared for in a public shelter.

There have been hundreds of local requests for the Defense Department booklets on fallout shelters. An adequate shelter, he said, is one that over a period of two weeks will keep the total radiation dose within tolerable limits.

Mr. Weaver concluded by noting that general preparations are well along in Adams County as far as the C-D organization is concerned. He said the 24 "well-equipped, well-run and well-organized" fire departments in the county and the fire police together with the fire companies' radio hookup and the quick-call system would be invaluable in case of nuclear attack or natural disaster. He said the emergency power system for the radio set-up got a "good test" early this month during the blizzard that cut off commercial power. He also said that the C-D organization here knows on paper how many refugees can be housed and fed in this community.

PLAN BROOM SALE

The speaker, who identified himself as a charter member of the Lions Club, was introduced by Kenneth G. Reinhart Jr., of the program committee. President David Bloser presided with 50 members and guests in attendance.

Three Lions from Littlestown, Marvin Breighner, Richard Selby and Chester Byers, attended the meeting and afterwards conferred with a club committee on the proposed "Junior Miss" contest.

George W. Miller, a former member here who has returned to Gettysburg and is being reinstated as a member, spoke briefly.

It was announced the Lions will hold a broom sale early in May.

Assistant Chief Killed In Mishap

BLOOMSBURG, Pa. (AP)—The assistant police chief of Catawissa died in Bloomsburg Hospital about midnight Monday night, 4½ hours after being struck by an auto while on an investigation in the nearby Columbia County community.

The victim, Ralph J. Fox, 64, suffered a fractured skull and concussion. The driver of the car was identified as Raymond Marks, 19, of Numidia.

Catawissa Police Chief Ben Hollingshed said he and Fox were investigating tire thefts in the area when Hollingshed parked the police car to enter a magistrate's home. He said the next thing he heard was a thump and saw Fox lying on a street.

The police chief said Fox apparently attempted to cross a dimly lighted street. He said the nearest overhead light was some 50 feet away.

board. The order would not permit control measures such as supply quotas, grading, inspections and fixing of container sizes.

John Mengel, Leesport, Berks County apple grower and past president of the State Horticultural Association, has been appointed head of the industry committee to support the marketing order at the forthcoming hearing.

Support by leaders of the apple industry gained momentum at a recent convention of fruitgrowers when representatives from Florida, New York and Virginia explained the success of the marketing order programs. The New York spokesman said their growers paid $500,000 to promote successfully a bumper crop of 23 million bushels of apples in 1961.

It was at the same meeting the State Horticultural Association passed a resolution favoring a marketing order for Pennsylvania apple producers.

MRS. KENNEDY ENROUTE HOME

By EUGENE LEVIN
KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — America's First Lady—a queen to millions of Indians and Pakistanis—Monday headed home from what she called "the most magic two weeks in my life."

Carrying memories of elephants and horses, maharajas and tribal chieftains, Jacqueline Kennedy ended her first Asian tour and said she hoped to come back again soon.

"It is terribly sad to be leaving today," she said as she boarded a Pakistani jet airliner for London.

MEETS PRINCESS

Enroute to London, Mrs. Kennedy's plane made an hour's stop at Tehran, Iran, where she was greeted by Princess Fatima, the shah's sister, Premier Ali Amin and U.S. Ambassador Julius Holmes.

Mrs. Kennedy will spend three days in the British capital at the home of her sister, Princess Lee Radziwill, and will lunch on Wednesday at Buckingham palace with Queen Elizabeth II.

Behind her was a weekend in Rome and an audience with Pope John XXIII, and 14 days in India and Pakistan packed with elephants, camels, pandas, snakes, shows, hospital tours and exotic foods.

2 cloves garlic (crushed)
2 cups water
2 large carrots (sliced)
1 large green pepper (diced)
1 cup diced celery
2 very large potatoes (pared and quartered)

Roll oxtails in flour; brown in hot fat in kettle or Dutch oven, along with onion. Add salt, pepper, garlic and water. Simmer, tightly covered, for about three hours. Skim if necessary. Add carrots, green pepper, celery and potatoes; bring to a boil and boil gently until potatoes are cooked—about 30 minutes. Add water if necessary during cooking. Serve in large soup bowls with soup spoons and forks. Makes four servings.

1 egg (well beaten)
3 to 3 1/2 cups sifted flour

Dissolve yeast in warm water. Mix together the brand, shortening, boiling water, sugar and salt; cool to lukewarm. Stir in dissolved yeast. Add beaten egg; add enough flour to make a firm dough, beating in with mixer, then if necessary using a spoon. Cover bowl; refrigerate overnight. Using ice cream scoop (No. 24, about three tablespoons), put a scoop of the dough into 16 muffin-pan cups (each 1/2 cup size). Or use two spoons to add dough to cups. Cover; let rise until doubled in bulk—1 1/2 to 2 hours. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 20 minutes.

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel's state prosecutor mounted a slashing attack Monday on Adolph Eichmann's appeal against the death sentence.

Atty. Gen. Gideon Hausner, who prosecuted the former Gestapo official convicted of complicity in the Nazi slaughter of the Jews, called arguments advanced by Eichmann's defense "only designs to delay the judgments and execution of sentence."

Letters To The Editor

To The Editor
Gettysburg Times
Gettysburg, Pa.
Mrs. Kime:

I read your letter of March 22, 1962, in The Gettysburg Times regarding the obituary of Franklin Purrington.

It puzzled me why you should take such an attitude towards the obituary of someone whom you possibly do not know. You, Mrs. Kime, not being a resident of McSherrystown couldn't possibly know the business of everyone in this community, but quite possibly you know your community. This being the case, and in answer to your question, I could supply you with some answers, I seriously doubt though that you would accept any answer.

It was I, Mrs. Kime, who reported the death notice to the newspaper. I reported it after presstime of the day the man died, thus it had to be carried over to the next day. This man was my personal friend and good neighbor for at least 10 years. It was my fault for not calling the information in to the newspaper in time. Please attribute this inefficiency to the fact that I was terribly upset over losing a good friend.

Franklin was a man who loved the church he belonged to, believing in it and serving it faithfully to the extent that it was through church service that he contracted the illness which caused his untimely death. Franklin was a Protestant. Although I am a Catholic he was still my good friend and I respected his belief, because we Catholics, in spite of what you may have heard, are taught that prejudice is not a way of life.

I called you on the telephone on Sunday evening, Mrs. Kime, told you who I was, and why I was calling. But you, Mrs. Kime, didn't have the courage or consideration to hear me out in trying to answer the question which you asked in The Gettysburg Times. You hung the telephone up on me, Mrs. Kime. You asked a big why in the letter you wrote, now I'm asking you, Mrs. Kime, why didn't you listen to me when I was trying to answer your question? Anyone who thirsts for knowledge certainly should be open for discussion or at least conversation.

The editor of The Times answered your question quite adequately, but I couldn't let this incident go unanswered, or unchallenged. You see, even though Franklin was a Protestant, and I am a Catholic, we were still very good friends.

Sincerely yours,
Harry F. Walter

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — Prof. Auguste Piccard, 78, noted Swiss scientist and inventor who was one of the world's foremost pioneers in high altitude and deep sea research, died Sunday of a heart attack. Piccard, in a balloon gondola of his own design, soared more than 10 miles upward in 1931. In a steel ball he and his son Jacques fashioned he went down two miles beneath the sea in 1953.

11 KILLED IN STATE TRAFFIC

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fourteen persons were killed in accidents in Pennsylvania over the weekend, including 11 traffic victims.

A 10-year-old boy fell to his death while scaling a cliff and a man and a child died in separate fires, in nontraffic accidents.

The traffic victims included John Peterson, 19, a sophomore at Penn State University, and William Leone, a sophomore at Clarion State College. They were killed Saturday when Peterson's sports car, heading toward Kane, skidded on a patch of ice left from recent cold weather and smashed into a culvert and tree, police said. Both were from Kane.

AGED MAN KILLED

In another traffic accident, Thomas Carey, 92, of Philadelphia, was injured fatally Saturday night when an ambulance taking him to a hospital and an auto collided. Carey, who had suffered an apparent heart attack, died of a broken neck.

SAFE DRIVING TIPS

KEEP PENNSYLVANIA "THE SAFE DRIVER STATE"

By Concentrating on Your Driving

Modern conveniences and engineering advances have helped take the work out of driving, but it is, nonetheless, a full time job which demands every moment of the driver's attention. Even a momentary lapse can lead to an accident!

Never let anything distract you from the job of driving. It's also a good idea to check your rear-view mirror, the road ahead, the right and left, and your side-view mirror every few moments to make sure you'll see any possible danger.

If every motorist had observed this safety rule during 1961, 121,514 accidents and 672 fatalities might have been prevented!

TAPE RERUNS QUESTIONED BY TV WRITER

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Millions of sports-watchers on Saturday night saw boxer Benny Paret, after absorbing many blows, slip unconscious onto the floor of the ring. Then the television cameras showed doctors working over the fallen and critically injured champion and his removal on a stretcher.

The scene is a familiar one to anyone who has watched the many television and movie dramas about prizefights. But Saturday night it was different: Those were real blows Paret was taking, and his slump to the floor was that of a man who had suffered a serious injury. And, to judge from comments by viewers, it was a chilling thing to see.

RERUN TAPE

But, perhaps the most unfortunate part was the decision of ABC to re-run immediately the tape showing the final moments of the fight, complete with scenes of emergency treatment of the unconscious man.

It is somehow ironic that this occurred at a time when television's critics are complaining of excessive violence and brutality in its program content. But the offensive violence and brutality is the Hollywood type—phony, compounded of fierce swings that miss their mark by inches and heroic tussles by stunt men using breakaway furniture.

COMO AT WORK

Perry Como has decided to put in a full work year of 33 weeks shows next season on NBC, after all.

Star names draw audiences—Saturday night's NBC old movie had Marlene Dietrich and James Stewart, and in most areas was getting bigger audiences than "Gunsmoke" which is the usual winner in the weekly audience race.

The daytime "Tennessee Ernie Ford Show" kicking off on ABC Monday will include comedy, music, a sing-along feature, and will wind up with an inspirational song.

Redistricting Decision May Set Off Number Of Suits

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Supreme Court ruling that a citizen may ask a federal court to decide if his state's legislature is out of balance between city and rural representatives appears likely to set off court suits and special legislative sessions in many states.

One suit was filed within two hours after the decision was handed down Monday. A taxpayer in Atlanta asked that Georgia's county unit system be thrown out. Under the system, he argued, a man's vote in cities is worth much less than that of a country voter.

His argument is an old one. Many states have such suits pending. But the city voters had a new weapon in hand today in their long fight to prod rural representatives out of some of their seats in state capitols and get more representation for themselves.

Because of Monday's decision, their hopes were higher.

In 1946 the Supreme Court said that "courts ought not to enter the political thicket. The remedy for unfairness in districting is to secure state legislatures that will apportion properly, or to invoke the ample powers of Congress."

6-2 DECISION

Monday the court decided 6 to 2 a federal court can step in and determine whether city voters are unconstitutionally discriminated against in the apportionment of legislative seats.

The case had to do with Tennessee where there has been no reapportionment in 61 years. The decision had meaning in many other states.

In Pennsylvania, a watchdog group called the Committee of Seventy, declared it would bring suit unless the legislature redistricts during its session which begins in January.

Gov. John Patterson of Alabama said he may call a special session of the legislature. Last summer a group of Alabama voters sued in Montgomery, asking the district court to compel the legislature to reapportion itself. Their pending suit requested the court to force candidates for House and Senate to run at large this year unless the legislature was reapportioned.

FOLLOW-UP RULING

In Topeka, Kan., Dist. Judge Marion Beatty said any action on a pending suit seeking to force reapportionment of the legislature would be delayed to permit all concerned to study the Supreme Court decision. Briefs had been due Friday.

In its decision in the Tennessee case, the Supreme Court said it would be improper for it to consider now what remedy would be most appropriate if the city voters prove their case at the trial.

Supreme Court sources, however, said this would be the follow-up on the ruling.

After 25 days of the Supreme Court clerk notifies the special three-judge federal court in Nashville that it has authority to act on complaints. The special court will hold a trial to give complaining voters an opportunity to try to prove their claims.

If the special court decides that urban voters' rights to equal protection under the 14th Amendment have been denied, it will determine what remedies to order.

COURT ORDERS

Solicitor General Archibald Cox, arguing before the Supreme Court in support of urban voters, suggested a simple declaration by the special court that present Tennessee districts are unconstitutional would probably lead to action by the Tennessee Legislature to correct inequities.

Cox said that if the legislature resists, the special court could order one of the following:

An election at large.
The value of votes of state senators and representatives be reduced by an amount necessary to offset over-representation — giving legislators fractional rather than full votes.

Simple changes in legislative districts.

Opponents of such orders could appeal to the Supreme Court.

NEW YORK (AP) — The most dangerous hazard in acting, asserts Henry Fonda, is stage deafness.

"You have to always be aware of the performance," says the star who is now on Broadway in "Critic's Choice."

"The way to let a performance become static is to stop listening — and that's the easiest pit of all to fall into."

"If you keep alert to everything that goes on, you become aware of new and exciting detail."

Citing his run in "Mister Roberts," Fonda says: "I know I was better in it after 1,600 performances."

WILL UNDERGO MENTAL TESTS

READING, Pa. (AP)—Michael Moore Jr., 14, sentenced to 9-to-20 years in prison for strangling a 5-year-old girl, will undergo diagnostic tests first at the Eastern State Correctional Institution at Philadelphia.

Moore showed no emotion Monday when Judge Warren K. Hess of Berks County imposed the sentence on him for the Oct. 12 slaying of Ann Darlington.

Hess noted that under Pennsylvania law he could of sentence the youth directly to a institution. He said, however, that he had received indications the boy would be sent to the State Industrial School for Boys at Camp Hill, where he would be able to finish high school and receive psychiatric treatment at the same time.

Moore had changed his plea from innocent by reason of insanity to guilty of murder in general after his trial got underway. Hess last week ruled the case to be one of murder in the second degree.

Moore was quoted by authorities as saying he lost his temper when the girl told him to stay away from a fort her playmates had built in a wooded area near her suburban Reading home.

The girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Darlington, were in the courtroom for the sentencing but they showed no emotion.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—Willard W. Patti, 70, who organized and served as the first dean of Indiana University's School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, died Monday, Patti, who had been on the I. U. faculty for 32 years, was born in Redfield, Iowa.

The bola, a weapon made of weights connected by thongs, was used by primitive peoples some 400,000 years ago. The ancient hunting device is still occasionally employed by the gauchos of South America and by some Eskimos.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
SPRING REDUCING SERIES.

Reducing the upper arm and back usually is thought difficult. But really it's a snap, if you exercise with a strap.

Like a sparring partner, a strap resists your movements, and the

Slims
Arms
and

resistance forces you to work harder. It also adds interest to workouts. As a consequence, results come faster.

The best kind of strap to use is made of sturdy leather, about 60 inches long. Two strong belts, buckled together, are fine.

The best strap routines for the back and arms follow:

1. Stand erect with feet six inches apart. Hold strap, near ends, in either hand. Fling strap behind shoulders; raise arm above and behind head, as far as possible; draw hands together.

Now with great force, pull outward on strap until it "snaps"; immediately bring hands together again. Continue rapidly for 20 to 40 counts. (If strap fails to snap when arms are fully extended, shorten your grasp on it.)

2. Stretch out back down on floor. Grasp strap so that hands are 12 inches apart. Extend arms above head on floor and pull strap taut. Then, holding grip on strap, creep down floor. Do this by moving each foot in turn one inch forward for 10 counts. Next reverse action and come back to starting position. Repeat entire routine three to six times, being sure to keep shoulders pressed to floor.

TRIMMERS AND SLIMMERS

Let me help you with the problem of a too-fleshy arm, chest or upper back by sending you my leaflet, TRIMMERS AND SLIMMERS. It contains a set of coordinated spot reducing exercises—easy to do, quick to get results. Just write me: A Lovelier You, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and five cents in coin to cover handling.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—"I feel I'm a little lazy myself," said James Stewart, "but I think a man ought to keep busy."

Although graying a bit now, Jimmy still wears the shy, deceptively easy-going air of "the boy next door" that has been his acting trade mark for a generation.

The record shows he has kept pretty busy. In addition to a series of Broadway plays, he has been in some 70 films, won an Oscar and been nominated for an Academy Award three other times.

Outside his profession, he has been equally active. He has done everything from flying bombers in wartime to shooting tigers in India.

PRINCETON TRUSTEE

Currently he is a trustee of Princeton University, a member of the board of the Air Force Association, a brigadier general in the Air Force Reserve, a regional Boy Scout executive, and participates in a number of community affairs.

He also enjoys half a dozen hobbies, ranging from hunting, fishing and photography to flying his own airplane.

Jimmy came here for a little Broadway sightseeing after completing his latest film, John Ford's production of "The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance," in which he is costarred with John Wayne, Vera Miles and Lee Marvin.

"PHYSICAL HEALTH"

Over a huge chunk of luncheon roast beef, Stewart discussed the philosophy of living that has enabled him to stay on top in show business for so long.

"I place tremendous importance on physical health and well-being," he remarked. "Health is the reservoir of any achievement."

It is so important anyone ought to do everything he can to keep it."

Everyone pays lip-service to this goal, but how can you stay healthy in a world of deepening tensions of every kind?

Here is Jimmy's recipe: "First, exercise. Don't necessarily make a big thing of it. Just make it a part of your daily life, even if you only walk around the block."

"ENJOY YOUR WORK"

"Second, allow for a certain amount of relaxation from your work. Do something that is completely foreign to your way of earning your living, or the needs of taking care of your family."

"Third, and this is very basic, get a real enjoyment from your work."

"A man is tremendously fortunate if he likes his work—if he is not bored with his job."

"Boredom is a terrible thing. It destroys more people than anything else I can think of. But if you like your line of work, and try your best to be good in your job, it's unlikely you'll be bored at it."

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The philodendron, it has been found, is the type of office live plant favored by most American business executives. So, girls, do not surprise your boss with a spring dandelion. Break his boyish heart with a big green philodendron.

Does your wife talk too much? Tell her she'll have lower dental bills if she'll just shut her trap.

The British Dental Association reports "chatter boxes" are more prone to tooth decay because an open mouth exposes the teeth to erosion from elements in the air.

THREE EVERY SECOND

Our crowded globe: Three babies are born in the world every second. The countries whose rate of population growth is highest are Costa Rica, Red China and Mexico.

How much do you use your car? Despite the building of new high-speed highways, the average owner wheels the family bus only about 10,000 miles a year, the same as he did 20 years ago.

The Japanese have been infected by rock 'n' roll tunes, but they also cling to classical Western music. Tokyo alone has seven symphony orchestras.

Our quotable notables: "There is more sophistication and less sense in New York than anywhere else on the globe."—Don Herold.

Did you know that anonymous letter writers who lick the envelopes containing their "poison pen" notes can now be trapped by a newly discovered saliva test?

Navel maneuvers: Egyptian belly dancers have a clause in their contracts entitling them to a five-minute, preperformance warmup.

Here's one reason 80 per cent of medical students plan on becoming specialists: General practitioners net about $16,000 annually, specialists $35,000.

Star gazers: It is estimated that astrology has 30 million followers in America, hundreds of millions abroad.

Broadway wisecrack: Henry ("Carnival") Lascoe reports on the guy who stays up to listen to the late news. That's when his wife comes home from her job.

History lesson: Can you name the only U.S. president who was inaugurated in two cities and never lived in Washington, D.C.? He was George Washington, inaugurated at New York City in 1789 and in Philadelphia in 1793.

Gem lore: Diamonds may be a girl's best friend, but flawless rubies are more valuable than diamonds, emeralds or sapphires.

It was Oscar Wilde who observed: "Men always want to be a woman's first love; women have a more subtle instinct: What they like is to be a man's last romance."
